

CR 80.1
ELECTRONIC RECORDING LOG

When the proceedings are electronically recorded, the court shall ensure that a written log of the proceedings is created that indicates the time of relevant events.

The judicial officer shall call the case name and cause number of each proceeding and shall assure that all case participants identify themselves for the record.

[Adopted effective September 1, 2015.]
